

Trinity Sunday

Deuteronomy 6:4-9; Colossians 1:15-19, Matthew 28:16-20

INTRODUCTION

- What does the culture say about belief in God? _____

- To be in true _____ with God, you have to _____ who He is.

ONE GOD

- What does Shema mean? _____
 - What central truth about God does the Shema state? The LORD is _____
 - What does the First Commandment state? _____
-
- What does Monotheism mean? _____

ONE ESSENCE

- What are some attributes (the essence of God)?
Omnip _____; Omnisci _____; Omnipr _____; Eter _____
Immut _____; Truth; Holy; Just, Righteous; Lo _____, Merciful, Gra _____
- What would happen if you took away just one of these attributes from God? _____

THREE PERSONS

- Trinity means _____
- A person is someone who has a _____, separate identity.
 - We see that each member of the Trinity has special functions that help us to identify them. For example, the Father planned _____; the Son accomplished it on the _____ and at the resurrection, and the _____ applies it to the lives of the believers.

THREE PERSONS, ONE ESSENCE

- One _____ and three _____.
 - While we can distinguish the per _____ we cannot divide the ess _____.
 - A Triune God is by His very nature a God of Re _____ and L _____
-
- How did the Father love? _____
 - How did the Son love? _____
 - How did the Holy Spirit love? _____
-
- How will you love? _____

