Planting the Seed...Finding the Good Ground, Matthew 13:8

Encouraged & Excited

We have been traveling for almost a year now, and we could not be more encouraged to see how God has provided for our needs and even more than we need. It has been a delight to receive emails and calls from churches letting us know of their partnership with us. Now, more than ever, we are excited to see what God will do in Mexico City. Please know that we do not take your faithful support for granted. Thank you so much for your love and sacrificial giving.

Great News!

We are so thankful that we were able to enjoy a date to celebrate our fifth wedding anniversary this month! God has blessed me with a wonderful wife who desires to serve by my side and who loves the Lord more than anything. This month was full of meetings throughout the East Coast. We are so thankful for many opportunities to present our burden and to share what we will do in Mexico. We have received word from several churches that they will consider partnering with us in the future, and we indeed pray that this will come to pass. It was such a privilege to visit Heritage Baptist Church in Virginia at the end of this month, one of our supporting churches. We appreciate Dr. Edwards and his friendship. In preparation for our move to Mexico City next year, we moved out of our house in Florida, and made Connecticut our base when we are not traveling. We are still anticipating to arrive to Mexico City in the fall of 2015 or even earlier than that if God wills. Natanya and Santiago are doing well, and we are thankful that the Lord has kept them healthy since we started deputation. He blesses us in so many ways. He is always good!
